OVERVIEW

Andy Lycans is the head of the firm’s Oil and Gas and Intellectual Property practices. Andy has represented clients on both the state and federal levels with regard to such oil and gas issues as the Dormant Mineral Act, the Marketable Title Act, and whether wells remain held by production. Andy also assists clients with the registration of trademarks and copyrights, and the enforcement or defense of administrative and court actions regarding such intellectual property rights. Andy also has extensive experience with a broad range of probate and trust litigation, and has tried a number of will contest actions. In addition, Andy handles general business litigation matters for clients.

Prior to joining the firm, Andy served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Samuel H. Mays, Jr., U.S. District Court, Western District of Tennessee, Western Division at Memphis.

CERTIFICATIONS

Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Samuel H. Mays, Jr, U.S. District Court, Western District of Tennessee

EXPERIENCE

- State ex rel. Claugus Family Farm, L.P. v. Seventh District Court of Appeals, Case No. 14-0423, Supreme Court of Ohio, 145 Ohio St. 3d 180 (2016). Original action brought in the Supreme Court on behalf of an oil and gas lessor seeking writs of prohibition and mandamus against the Seventh District Court of Appeals based upon the Seventh District's failure to provide notice to absent members of the class before issuing order affecting the lessor's property rights in a class action. The Supreme Court of Ohio granted an alternative writ. After briefing and argument, the Supreme Court declined to issue writs of prohibition and mandamus for technical reasons, but declined itself to toll the oil and gas leases of absent class members during the pendency of the action as the Seventh District had done.
- Eisenbarth v. Reusser, Case No. 13 MO 10, Seventh Appellate District, Monroe County, 18 N.E. 3d 477 (2014). In action representing reserved mineral interest owner, the Seventh District decided in a matter of first impression that an oil and gas lease constitutes a title transaction and savings event under the Dormant Mineral Act.
- Calame v. Treece, C. A. No. 07CA0073, Court of Appeals of Ohio, Ninth Appellate District, Wayne County, 2008-Ohio-4997 (2008). In an action representing siblings contesting their mother's will and trust documents leaving vast majority of estate to brother, the Ninth District affirmed jury finding that will and trust documents were the result of undue influence.
