OVERVIEW

Easton Saltzman is an associate in Critchfield’s Medina office, specializing in corporate transactions, financing, mergers and acquisitions, and general corporate matters. He received his law degree from George Mason University School of law in 2017. During law school, Easton took advantage of the immense legal opportunities offered in the Washington D.C. metro area. Primarily, Easton gained invaluable insight into regulatory matters by interning at numerous federal government agencies, including the Securities and Exchange Commission, General Services Administration, and Department of Justice, Tax Division. After graduation, Easton has since gained extensive transactional business experience in a variety of different industries.
